All animals must meet State of Illinois Health requirements listed in the front of the book. All animals will be scratched from the show for unhealthy conditions at the discretion of the show committee, or superintendents, and will not be allowed to remain on the fairgrounds. When animals arrive on the grounds, they will be checked before they are allowed in pens. Any animal with evidence of sore mouth, abscesses, or ringworm will not be allowed on the grounds. If there is any problem regarding their ruling, a veterinarian will be called at the exhibitor's expense.
